

Selby Treasures Exhibition Events

Monday 27 January 10.30-11.30am Walk and Talk

Meet the curator to find out more about this fascinating exhibition.

Thursday 30 January 11-12.30pm Show and Tell

Have you been inspired by the exhibition? Do you have a special object and story that you would like to share? Meet our curator who will record your object and story to add to our growing Selby Treasures Archive.

Thursday 30 January 1-2pm Walk and Talk

Meet the curator to take a closer look at some of our Selby Treasures.

Saturday 1 February 11.00-3.00pm Objects and Archives

Join us to explore the amazing archives connected to our exhibition. Younger visitors can try our tricky trail, use their detective skills to solve puzzles, have a go at writing with a quill and create a seal for their letters.

Wednesday 5 February 2.00-4.00pm Show and Tell

Have you been inspired by the exhibition? Do you have a special object and story that you would like to share? Meet our curator who will record your object and story to add to our growing Selby Treasures Archive.

Wednesday 5 February 6.30-7.15pm Archaeological Talk

Meet Paula Ware Director of MAP Archaeological Practice who will be giving a fascinating illustrated talk about the archaeological dig at Turnhead Farm, Barlby. The Roman Face Pots displayed as part of Selby Treasures were discovered on this site.

Saturday 8 February 11.00-12.30 Special Books

Amongst the books available for closer inspection will be a seventeenth century copy of Thomas Johnson's extended version of Gerarde's 'Herball'.

Saturday 8 February 1.30-2.30 Walk and Talk

Meet the curator to explore the exhibition.

The exhibition is open 25 January to 9 February 2020 9am-4pm every day. The exhibition and all events are free. For more information please email pearsonheritage@gmail.com or call 01757 292314 or 01757 292336